

Week Beginning 23 March

Literacy Activities - Publishers and Authors

Tuesday

Reading comprehension about hedgehogs. Find and highlight new and unfamiliar words. Discuss what you think the following words mean in the context of the story:-

considerable roots replacement scare moist habitats invertebrates reputation threatened nocturnal.

After you have read the passage, try and make up a sentence using each of these words. Write your sentences in your jotter.

Answer questions about the passage, taking care with your letter formation and finger spaces. Remember your capital letters, full stops and to answer in sentences.

Wednesday

You are going to uplevel the sentence:

Jim fell over.

Include adjectives, extend your sentence and use a connective. Illustrate your sentence. Discuss with your parents where Jim was and why he fell over. Think about how to start the sentence in an exciting way and what Wow Words you could use to make it interesting.

Thursday

Listen to CCBC Jackanory Junior - Bob and the Elves

Retell the story to someone in your house.

Imagine you have elves in your house. Write a story telling us about the adventures you have together. Try and include paragraphs in your piece of writing, making sure to include VCOP (adjectives, interesting words, connectives, good openers for sentences and accurate punctuation)

Friday
