Health & Wellbeing - Health - Can you research and make a different fact file for our health topic? The choices are still The Heart, Digestive System or The Brain. Try to work to a class standard! Here is a new game to explore. It's about your digestion. http://www.sheppardsoftware.com/health/anatomy/digestion/digestion_tutorial.htm  Keep fit with - The Body Coach #PEwithJOE, Mon - Fri 9am Hello P4/5, I hope you are getting on well at home and trying your best with your tasks. I've been checking on Sumdog and can see how busy you are being - well done! I've liked your photos on Twitter and emails, too. Are you remembering to share our 'Home Learning' song which is on Twitter? Try to do something kind every day!	Other Learning Routine is important while we are working from home. Why don't you try making yourself a visual timetable like the one we use in class?  French - play the months of the year game from in your pack. * Art - be inspired to be creative and up level your drawing skills by watching and learning from http://www.robbiddulph.com/draw-with-rob. I've loved trying his ideas and think you will too! (He updates daily.) * Lego - look at the school twitter page for details of the Lego 30 Day Challenge. There are some exciting ideas here. If you don't have Lego you could draw instead. * Lots of children are making rainbow pictures to display in their own windows as positive signs. Could you do this too? Can you add an inspirational message? You can find lots of ideas on the internet... maybe you will see some in your street as well?
