

- What can you see? What do you think has happened/is happening/will happen?
- Where did the house come from? How do you think it got here? Why is it surrounded by all of the bricks? What happened to the lamp posts?
- Who is the woman inside the house? Why is she looking out of the window? What might she be thinking? Do you think anyone else is in the house with her?
- If your house could travel, where would you like to go? Have a look at maps/travel brochures/best places to visit lists.
- Make a travel itinerary for you and your house. What sights would you see?

- What can you see inside the bottle?
- Is it a miniature village inside an ordinary-sized bottle, or an ordinary-sized village inside a giant bottle?
- Has it always been inside the bottle?
- Does anyone live there? Can they feel the waves of the water outside the bottle?
- How did it get there? Where is it drifting away from/to?
- Write an imaginative story about life inside the bottle.

NOKEEK.DEVIANTART.COM

- Write/say sentences about this picture using the following sentence starters:
 - Behind
 - Underneath/under
 - Inside
 - On
 - Above
 - Beside
 - Between
- Who is the girl? What is she interested in? What kind of personality does she have? What is she reading?
- What is the most unusual object in the room? Why?
- What can you see inside the girl's room that could be found in your own room too?
- Write a setting description of your own room including as many things as you can. Use the sentence starters above to help you.
- Draw a picture to accompany your setting description.

- Describe this setting. Consider the sights, sounds and smells. Try to choose language that best reflects the picture.
- Where do you think this is? What is this place?
- Who are the people? What are they doing? Why are they here?
- Look at the silhouettes of people in the background. What is that person pointing at?
- Does this place often experience 'sudden rain'?
- Is this a wealthy place? Is this a safe place? Is this a place you would like to explore with an adult, with a friend or alone? Explain your thoughts.
- Write a paragraph describing the setting, including as many things as you can.
- Draw a picture to accompany your setting description.