Well done to EVERYONE who participated in the whole school challenge. Some amazing work went into it.

You've caught my eye this week:

Ms Campbell showed you all her lovely spring walk. So many of you replied showing her the flowers on your walk. Sophia, I loved seeing the ducks that have come to live in your garden. Leighton, the flowers in grandpa's garden looked lovely, I can't wait for your potatoes to grow. Brodie has been doing some lovely yoga and Willow learning some excellent life skills camping in the garden. Louie and Abi have been very active on twitter showing us all of their home learning. Amie. you have been a homeschooling champion. Congratulations Charlie (and his sister Evie) on raising £1000 to support the NHS charities.

Look out for who catches our eye next week.
