Can you create an invitation to the tea party? Draw and write about how you and your family have celebrated. A picture in your jotter or a loose piece of paper/card will be perfect. Who is in your household to invite? Perhaps your teddy bear? Where will you have it? Garden? Sitting-room? Kitchen? Balcony? What time does it start and finish? Make your invitations bright and bold. You can include pictures of what you enjoy doing when we visit the garden. If possible, can you photograph your invitations and post them on your Learning Journals/Twitter. Look out for Miss Mitchell and Isme and Mrs Campbell celebrating on twitter/Learning Journals..	Colinton Counts Indigo- Don't forget to use concrete objects to help you (e.g. pieces of pasta or stones)- resources included. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Purple group :Continue with sorting into equal groups. Resilience:                  This week we have a little game for you to play. Partner up with someone in your family. Set up an obstacle course- inside or outside. You can use anything. Cushions, chairs, toys, books, bags, shoes, scooters. One of you gets blindfolded. The other person has to lead the blindfolded person to safety through the obstacle course without touching or bumping into anything. Then repeat roles. At the end discuss with each other how you felt during the task. Nervous? Scared? Trusting? Terrified? Worried? Anxious? Confident?	Room to Grow Tea party- Friday 29th May                  Post a photo on Twitter or your Journal to let us know if you manage to celebrate with us today.

Leaderboard

Here is the P1 Leader Board- Will you be on it next week?

Leaderboards	Maths	Spelling
1	Gabrielle	Amie
2	Abi	Gabrielle
3	Willow	Abi
4	Amie	Willow
5	Louie	Brodie

You've caught my eye this week:

Amie put a really kind message in the window for the nursery boys and girls in her area. Abi has been on some fantastic walks with her family up in the hills. So many of you joined in with our fitness video, it was great to see Brodie encouraging her brother to join in. I really enjoyed reading about your heroes. Ruben has been reading a fantastic book about forgotten beasts. Leighton has been doing some delicious baking. It was lovely to meet Orfeas and his family in the Hermitage walking their dog. Charlie has been incredibly brave on the bike trails!

Look out for who catches our eye next week.
