Draw a picture and write about someone in your life who is your hero. We would really love to know Kindness: As you are already doing your above writing task this week about "My Hero." Show an act of kindness to your Hero in any form you can If possible-a wave, a phone call, a post- it note to them, a picture on your window, a card, baking, tidying, a thumbs up. We'd love to see any photos on your Learning Journals. Listening and talking: Look out for this week's story.	Colinton Counts Indigo- Don't forget to use concrete objects to help you (e.g. pieces of pasta or stones)- resources included. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Count items in two collections Learn doubles to 5 and 10 Purple group :Continue with sorting into equal groups. For example-put out 20 pieces of pasta. Sort into 4 equal groups. Put out 12 pieces of pasta. Sort into 3 equal groups. Also this week, put out a mixed collection. Eg 10 pieces of pasta. 10 tea biscuits. Sort the pasta into 5 equal groups and the biscuits into 5 equal groups. Put out 9 of each. Sort each into 3 equal groups and so on. Green group: Sort into equal groups. For example-put out 20 pieces of pasta. Sort into 2 equal groups. Put out 16 pieces of pasta. Sort into 4 equal groups. And so on. Blue group: Counting a group. For example-put out 11 pieces of pasta. How many? Add another 4 pieces. How many altogether now? Whole School Focus (3 weeks) Time https://www.topmarks.co.uk/time/teaching-clock Time Week 3: Writing O'clock digital time- Can you find clocks around you house that are analogue and that are digital. Write O'clock times in digital form. Sheets attached. How many different devices can you find in you house that can tell time? (e.g. egg time, sand timer, phone etc) SUMDOG Edinburgh Maths Contest Starts 15th May- See your journal for details 😊

Fischy Music are doing live assemblies at 11:00am every Monday on their youtube channel! Username: Sonja.brown1 Password: SFLcolinton2017 P.E. – WEDNESDAY 20th of MAY at 9AM. Join in with our whole school workout on Wednesday at 9am. Get your PE kit on and keep your eyes peeled for some familiar faces! Follow this link to find the video https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCr00_vrfCDVj-g-Up13U8DQ/ Sports Day Challenge: If we were still at school we would be starting to practise for Sports Day. Over the next few weeks we will post a few Sports Day Challenges: Week 4: see separate Groupcall message.	Art: Mrs Date created a wonderful stick heart (I have put photos on your journal) for the school gates. Could you create a stick shape for our gates? Resilience: We are continuing to work on our resilience and wellbeing. This week for a bit of fun, can you create a Wellbeing Jar/Tub? 1.Find a jar or tub. 2.Decorate the tub with scraps of paper/tinfoil/cut out shapes/pens/wrapping paper. 3. Write a label from a piece of scrap paper or write on your tub and call it a name like;" My Happy Tub" or "My Lockdown Jar" or "My things to look forward to Tub." Over the coming weeks your task is to fill this jar with things you are looking forward to doing again. For example: visiting your granny, playing with your friends, going out for tea. You can open your tub whenever you want and read your messages. This will give you something to look forward to. I will also make one and I will post some photos on your Learning Journals.

Look out for the Edinburgh Schools Sumdog challenge starting 15th May.

There is a Sumdog Competition running from 15th – 22nd May. All classes have been entered and will be competing against other schools from across Edinburgh. 10 pupils from a class need to take part for the scores to count. As well as overall winners there will be daily winners.

You've caught my eye this week:

Willow created a brilliant movie about VE day which she let us share onto your journals. Oliver N has been painting up a storm this week and showing great team work with his sister when learning about time. Harris baked a lovely cake to celebrate VE day. Louie has been helping out around the house and showing kindness for other. Thea has been really enjoying using oxford owl for her reading. Thank you to all who sent me your book reviews.

Look out for who catches our eye next week.

Monday is a bank holiday in Edinburgh.
