Literacy	Numeracy & Maths
Publishers & Authors Grammar- Click here for your grammar work. This week we are consolidating our learning of Homophones. Can you write them down in your jotter, explain the meanings to an adult, then use them in sentences and illustrate them? On Sumdog there is a Homophones challenge in the Grammar section. Daily Writing – See Daily Writing Attachment. Writing – See Writing Attachment. Spelling – See Spelling Rules Attachment Listening and Talking – Listen to a Jackanory Junior Story of your choice. Can you tell someone in your house the main themes of the story? Reading – Choose a book and read for 15 minutes every day then recount the story to someone in your family. Write it down first. Watch BBC Bitesize to help you. Illustrators work is on the Launch Pad page.	Number Please check Sumdog for your Multiplication and Division Squares - Watch this BBC Bitesize clip and then do the attached worksheets. Triangles and Circles - Watch this clip and do the attached worksheet. With an adult, make up some arrays of your own. Times Tables – Keep doing the Supermovers and Topmarks games we have been doing the last few weeks. Money is our Maths Topic . There is a Money Mat attached. Please choose the Chilli Challenge most suited to you. This Money Mat is for two weeks. Attached are examples of Receipts that you may wish to copy. There are also maths and numeracy tasks to do on this week's Tea Party" attachment. Have fun with them.

P3/4 Wall of Fame

Sumdog

536 classes from across Edinburgh signed up for the city's challenge. P3/4 finished...10th!!! 10th! Can you believe it? What a brilliant achievement. Well done to all of you who spent a lot of time on it. The most active members of the class were...

Time Challenge Leader board:

1 st	James
2 nd	Oliver
3 rd	Meredith
4 th	Rosie
5 th	Samik

James was the 37th most effective player in all of Edinburgh for the week. Well done James. Over 10,000 children have participated in this competition so to be in the top 40 is some achievement. Keep it up!

Twitter

This week we were delighted to see:-

- Margot learning about Robert the Bruce, playing snakes & ladders and making muffins.
- James making chocolate cake and staying safe in the kitchen
- Lexi enjoying her letter from Mrs Hood

Keep tweeting us your pictures please, especially the ones of you preparing for the Tea Party celebrations.
