

Fashion is often inspired by nature. These artists have used real flowers, leaves, stems etc. and placed them over their drawings and photos to create something beautiful.

See what you can find in your garden or on a walk that you could use to create something similar. It doesn't have to be fashion – it could be patterns, buildings...anything you like!

